Instructions

Column 1: - A subscriber can nominate more than one person. If he/she has a family as defined in General Provident Fund (K) Rules, the nomination shall not be in favor of any person who is not a member of the family.

Column 4: - If the subscriber nominates only one person, the words "In full" may be noted. Otherwise the share payable to each in percentage so as to cover the whole amount standing at the credit of the subscriber may be specified.

Column 5: - Death need not be shown as a contingency. In the case of a subscriber having only one member in the family and who wishes to nominate another person as alternate nominee, he shall specify that the right conferred on the alternate nominee shall become invalid in the event of the subscriber acquiring an additional member in the family.

Column 6: - The name to be specified in this column shall be that of a member of the family of the subscriber if he has a family, other than the subscriber or nominee.

Column 7: -The name to be specified in this column shall be that of a person other than the subscriber or nominee.

Account No.:- In the case of persons who file the nomination along with application for admission to the Fund, this will be furnished by the Accountant General
